

Dr. B.K. Rana is the CEO of Quality & Accreditation Institute (QAI) and former Director & CEO-In-charge of NABH, Quality Council of India. He served as a Board Member of the International Society for Quality in Health Care (ISQua) and President of the Asian Society for Quality in Healthcare (ASQua), and currently serving as member of the ASQua Board. He also served as Chairman of ISQua Accreditation Council. He is Founding Member of the International Academy of Quality & Safety (IAQS) and Scientific Advisory Board, International Alliance of Patients' Organisations (IAPO).

He is an International Consultant and Expert for the WHO, World Bank, Asian Development Bank, USAID, ISQua, UNFCCC, GIZ and several other national and international organisations. His expertise includes establishing Healthcare and Laboratory Accreditation Bodies, Implementation of Quality Management System, and Standard Development in the field of Quality and Patient Safety. He holds a Ph.D in Biochemistry, Diploma in German and a Post Graduate Diploma in Hospital and Health Management. He has published twelve research papers in international journals, contributed chapters in books and presented in several national and international conferences. His passion for doing different things differently keeps him motivated to innovate and create new standards and programs.