

Restorative inquiry: A resilient response to systemic harm?

Jo Wailling RN Research Fellow & Facilitator
The Centre for Restorative Justice

SAFETY

HARM

“[Mesh] is a particularly horrific symptom of a larger problem of general lack of respect for patient intelligence and agency within the health system” (C157).

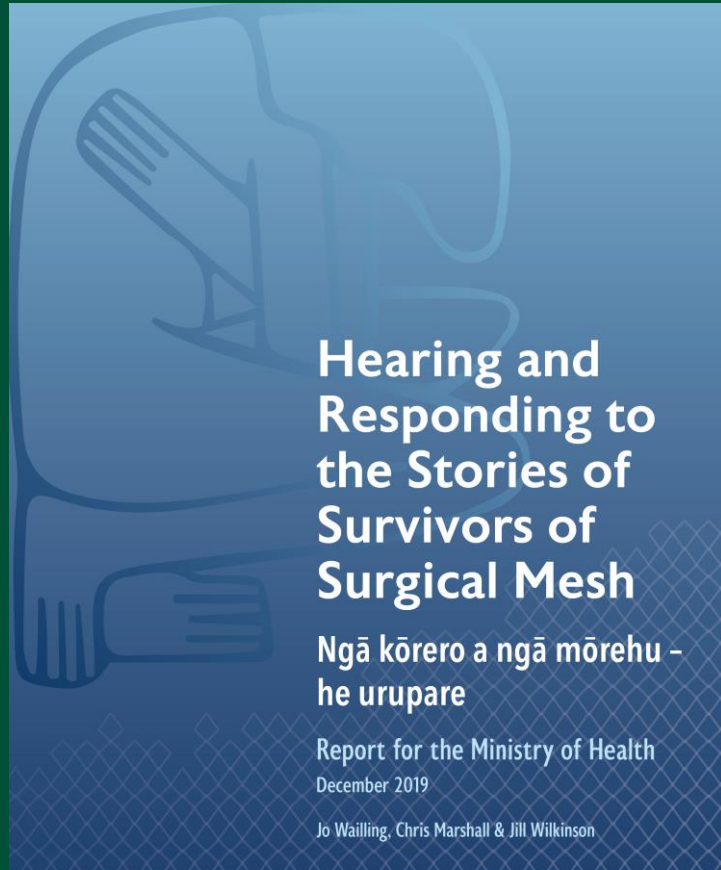

Healing after harm: An evaluation of a restorative approach for addressing harm from surgical mesh

Kia ora te tangata: He arotakenga i te whakahaumanu
That all people would thrive: An evaluation of a restorative approach for addressing harm from surgical mesh

The Diana Unwin
Chair in Restorative
Justice

Hearing and Responding to the Stories of Survivors of Surgical Mesh

Ngā kōrero a ngā mōrehu - he urupare

Report for the Ministry of Health
December 2019

Jo Wailling, Chris Marshall & Jill Wilkinson

The Diana Unwin
Chair in Restorative
Justice

